What is Self-Direction Series

Respite

What is Respite?

Staff working to provide relief to unpaid caregivers who are responsible for the self-directed person's primary care

What funding options are available in the Self-Direction Budget?

4 Types of Respite Funding

- Direct Provider Purchased Services or DPP
- Agency Supported Respite
- Self-Hired Respite
- Family Reimbursed Respite

What are the benefits of DPP-Agency Respite?

Most Staffing Support

- Agency driven HR tasks & paperwork
- Agency driven staff payrate & schedule
- Agency training standards
- Agency program compliance

What are the benefits of Self-Hired Respite?

Most Staffing Authority

- Rep interviews, hires, drives payrate, schedule & person-centered training
- AIM onboards (HR), processes payroll/benefits*, & OPWDD required training

Together Representative, AIM & Staff adhere to Self-Direction program compliance
AIM offers diverse education & training opportunities to all members of the circle of support

What is next?

Connect with your Team Members!

Circle of Support (Care Manager & Broker)
Team SD Coordinator & Staffing Support
AIM Onboarding & Education & Training Team

SD Education & Training Contact: sdsupport@aimservicesinc.org